

NEW: PACES Travel Grant

International Pediatric Cardiologists from Developing Countries to Attend the 2017 HRS/PACES Meeting in Chicago, Illinois

Aim: Support of 2 international pediatric cardiologists from developing countries¹ by coverage of registration fees and travel expenses (total support $4,000 per applicant)

Eligibility criteria:

- Pediatric cardiologists from outside the US and Canada who currently reside in a developing country
- At least 2-years of clinical practice in pediatric electrophysiology

Requirements:

- Curriculum vitae
- List of abstracts and publications, if applicable
- Documentation of experience in pediatric electrophysiology including involvement in research projects
- Statement of goals to be achieved with travel grant
- Letter of support from head of department or local adult electrophysiologist
- *Preference will be given to those individuals submitting an abstract for the 2017 HRS Scientific Session

Applications should be sent not later than December 31, 2016, to:

Thomas Paul, MD, FACC, FHRS
International Affairs, PACES Executive Committee
E-Mail: tpaul@gwdg.de

¹ A list of developing countries is updated annually by the World Health Organization. This list takes in to account the GDP of a given country as well as the Human Development Index.